COURSES 2019/20

Supporting Success....

Welcome to our rich programme of leadership and professional development courses designed to have a significant impact on teachers, leaders and support staff in our region.

We believe firmly that every person needs to continue to learn at every stage of their career and have been blessed with the opportunity to work with some exceptional and inspirational leaders on these courses.

At St Paul's and St Philip Howard, we believe strongly in the benefits of working collaboratively. This also fits with our commitment to be "outward facing" and we have found that we have learnt most by working with outstanding schools, teachers and leaders. This is not just schools "close to home" but nationally and internationally.

The work of Inspire and Bosco Teaching School Alliances aims to benefit all schools involved as an opportunity to share ideas and initiatives that provide some practical ways to raise achievement in each school context. We aim to ensure that this dialogue can be shared and discussed in a friendly, open and professional environment.

We provide a well-grounded, informed and current response to the key issues facing education today and in this ensure all participants develop in their leadership skills and confidence. It is not all about theory and we look for opportunities to ensure that every person involved can apply this professional learning to their own context and have a direct impact on school improvement. We have found this a very fruitful experience with all schools in the past.

Over the last four years we have had over 250 delegates who have successfully completed the leadership programmes. Many went directly on to achieving promotion during the course, either in their own school or beyond. We would warmly invite you to join us on the programmes this year.

Please contact us directly for any further details or questions. We look forward to working with you in the future.

Future Leaders

A key challenge is to “spot talent” early. As schools, we are committed to developing leadership at all levels. If you have the commitment and drive to develop into middle leadership this is the right programme for you.

Over the sessions, we will look at building your confidence and preparing you to take on leadership roles in your school or applying for your next role. We will give you the practical skills to develop as an academic or pastoral leader and ensure you have the right impact on students and develop as a school leader for the future.

There will be an expectation that you will lead a project within your school.

Course Leader(s)

Hilary Morfitt

Assistant Headteacher

Key Aims

- ✓ To focus on how to develop as a school leader for the future
- ✓ To evaluate leadership styles
- ✓ To reflect on key actions to prepare you for your next role and responsibility
- ✓ To prepare you for applying for your first leadership role

Leaders of Learning

Have you just taken on your first role as a middle leader and feel thrown in at the deep end? Do you want to step back from your busy life as a school leader and ask how you can do things differently?

This programme is designed to ensure you have the impact needed in your role to inspire others and get the results you deserve. It is ideal for anyone who has recently started as a middle leader or those who feel it is worth stepping back and looking at how to develop further after some experience in their current role. The emphasis of the course will be on the practical application of theory to the team you lead. We will look at ways to raise achievement both using academic and pastoral leaders and also give you time to look at how to develop your team around you to ensure you have the greatest impact on key areas of school development. There will be an expectation that you will take on a leadership project regarding teaching and learning within your school.

Course Leader(s)

Simon Adams
Assistant Headteacher

Keith Perera

Outstanding Senior Leadership

The most significant factor to have an impact on achievement is the quality of senior leadership and this will prepare you for this opportunity.

The aim of this programme is to prepare you fully to become an exceptional senior leader. It will look at key areas of school improvement as well as practical preparation for the application process and interview technique. There will also be an expectation that you will lead a school improvement project in your own school.

We will also be giving you individual support and a “mock interview” experience led by experienced senior leaders from within the alliance and a range of outstanding schools in the South East.

Course Leader(s)

Thrive in the first three years of teaching

Becoming the very best teacher possible is something we should all be striving for from the very start of our careers.

Over the course of five sessions we will focus on the cornerstones of excellent teaching - behaviour management, feedback, differentiation and challenge - as well as how shifting the culture of our practice can allow us to manage our workload and develop as evidence-informed, reflective practitioners and be thriving teachers for the long-term.

Science Subject Network Meeting

A key challenge as leaders of learning within Science faculties is to share best practice both within and between schools.

With the recent, numerous National Curriculum changes at Key Stages 3, 4 and 5 it is important to keep up-to-date with such changes and share innovative teaching and learning ideas to help maximise pupil outcomes.

Time out of lessons impacts on learning and is becoming increasingly more difficult. Working in isolation creates challenges with both workload and the sharing of ideas to meet the demands and rigour of the new specifications. Join this working group of local science leaders, who set their own agenda for issues that are important to them and benefit from working in collaboration.

Course Leader(s)
